Computer Use Policy

Computer Users Guidelines

Computers are available for public access to the Internet and information in digital formats.

1. The Library requests that the public sign-up for computer use by presenting their library card or other form of identification to the Main Desk staff. No sign up will be permitted for the last 15 minutes before closing time of the library and patrons are requested to end their sessions in a timely manner.
2. Staff is available upon request or by appointment to assist patrons on computers.
3. The display of sexually explicit graphics is inappropriate for a public and open environment and is prohibited.
4. Users may not make any attempt to damage computer equipment or software

Violations may result in suspension or loss of privileges to use computer resources at the library. Any illegal activity involving the use of the Library's computers, including the Internet, will be subject to prosecution by the appropriate authorities.

- * Users may not: Engage in any activity that is harassing or defamatory.
- * Users may not: Use the Internet for any illegal activity, including violation of copyright or other rights of third parties, or in a manner inconsistent with the Library's tax-exempt status or its proper operation.
- * Users may not: Distribute unsolicited advertising.
- * Users must: Restrict use of chat rooms or games to computers or time slots designated for that purpose.
- * Users must: Refrain from illegal or unethical use of the Internet.
- * Users must: Respect intellectual property by only downloading information or computer files with proper permission.
