Displays and Exhibits Policy of the Highland Public Library

As an educational and cultural institution, the Library welcomes exhibits and displays of interest, information and enlightenment to the community. Displays of artwork, handiwork, historical material, nature study, or any other material deemed of general interest may be exhibited. The director or designee shall accept or reject material offered for display based on its suitability and availability.

- Exhibits will be displayed for no more than one month and must be picked up within one week of final exhibit day.
- The Library assumes no responsibility for the preservation or protection, and no liability for possible damage or theft of any item displayed or exhibited.
- All items placed in the Library are there at the owner's risk.
- A release must be signed by the exhibitor before any artifact can be placed in the library.
- Any sale of artwork must be done directly between artist and purchaser. Exhibitor agrees to donate 10% of the proceeds from the sale of any artwork sold as a result of being displayed in the library.

Public Library Display and Exhibit Release

I, the undersigned, hereby agree to the terms set forth in the above policy. In consideration of the privilege of exhibiting them in the Library, I hereby release said Library from responsibility for loss, damage, or destruction while they are in the possession of the Library. I further agree to pick up all displayed items within one week of final day.

__________________________
Room__________________________ during__________________________

Description of materials

__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________

Signature__________________________ Date________________

Address_________________________________________________

Telephone__________________________