Friends of the Highland Public Library Launch “Help Me Study for Jeopardy! and Raise Money for the Library” Study-a-thon

Highland, NY, 5/27 –The Friends of the Highland Public Library are excited to announce a unique and fun fundraiser: “Help Me Study for Jeopardy! and Raise Money for the Library” Study-a-thon!

This fall, local patron Rachel Sear will appear on the iconic quiz show Jeopardy!, and the community now has the chance to support both her preparation and the library at the same time.

Adding to the excitement is a remarkable family connection: Rachel’s mother appeared on Jeopardy while pregnant with Rachel, making this upcoming appearance a full-circle moment generations in the making.

Supporters can participate in several ways:

- Sponsor Rachel for each hour she studies
- Donate toward specific study subjects such as Opera, Books of the Bible, or U.S. Presidents
- Make a flat donation to encourage her journey to the big stage

The fundraiser is designed to motivate Rachel as she prepares while raising valuable funds to support programs and services at the Highland Public Library.

“Help me win money on Jeopardy before I even leave for the show!” Rachel says with a laugh. “Every donation helps support the library and keeps me focused as I study.”

Community members are encouraged to share the fundraiser and cheer Rachel on as she studies her way toward the famous Jeopardy podium. Donations can be made by visiting Rachel’s TeamFi page.
